OK, I will get back to my ADME revision now. Also, I am working on my review of the NPC MOA (from Lynn Adams) and will send my comments to Jason.

Thank you for revising this so quickly, Sury. I like the summary layout. I had just a few, quick thoughts from a rapid skim of the attachments:

Hi Nagu and Catherine,

Good morning. Thank you very much for providing the comments on the FA-GeneTox section. Since there were several comments it took a while in revising the draft. Also, being a huge file I faced issues while saving the draft and sometimes lost some text which also added to the delay. It would be easier to work with one section separately. Anyway, here is the revised version with track changes.
